the movant's filing of an Affidavit of Default, the automatic stay effectuated by Debtors' bankruptcy filing will be lifted as ordered herein, so that U.S. Bank may avail itself to the rights and remedies afforded under its Note and Mortgage, including but not limited to the right to foreclose against the property if available under State Law.

4. In the event that the Debtors default a third time, the movant may immediately proceed with the filing of its Affidavit of Default, thereby terminating the automatic stay and abandoning the subject property as ordered herein, so that U.S. Bank may avail itself to the rights and remedies afforded under its Note and Mortgage, including but not limited to the right to foreclose against the property if available under State Law.

That upon default by the Debtors and proper notice of the default to the Trustee, the Property is hereby abandoned pursuant to Section 554 of the Bankruptcy Code, and U.S. Bank may avail itself to the rights and remedies afforded under the Note and Mortgage, including but not limited to the right to foreclose against the Property if available under State Law.

That upon default by the Debtors and proper notice of the default to the Trustee, the Trustee shall cease making payments to U.S. Bank pursuant to Debtors' Chapter 13 Plan, and any future payment and/or deficiency owed by the Debtors to U.S. Bank after sale of the Property shall be set forth in an Amended Proof of Claim filed by U.S. Bank and shall be subject to the Bankruptcy Code should this bankruptcy continue. If the Note and the obligation therein are fully satisfied and there remain any money-proceeds from the sale of the Property, then such monies will be paid to the Trustee for the benefit of the estate.

That upon the Debtors' default, the filing of the movant's Affidavit of Default, and the termination of the automatic stay and the abandonment of the subject property as provided herein, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(3) is not applicable and/or is waived and U.S. Bank may immediately enforce and implement relief from the automatic stay and foreclose on the subject property if available under State Law.

This Stipulated Order (the applicable payment and default terms herein) shall remain effective, upon conversion to another chapter bankruptcy.
